Mr. Ernest Abston
Rogersville, Tenn.

Dear Ernest,

I am very sorry that I have not taken the time to answer your letter before now. But several things have prevented me from knowing the answer to your request. At this point in our work here we are not in a position to furnish you a typewriter, in fact I have been attempting to obtain one for our work here for the past three months. If the elders decide to buy a new typewriter we could probably let you have our present typewriter. The only disadvantage to you would be that it has an eleven inch carriage. If you still do not have one and would be interested in this plan that I have outlined please let me know.

I certainly hope that your work is progressing. I am sure that you have many problems but I am confident that you can solve them. We send you our prayers and best wishes.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
